

Nara Prefecture Historical and Artistic Culture Complex Illustrated Map

Outstanding views!
Look out across a panorama of Mt. Katsuragi and Mt. Nijo in the Kongo Mountains, and Mt. Ikoma
in the Ikoma Mountains.

Outdoor Experience Zone

Entry is free of charge.
You can look around wherever you like on the first floor and in the basement

Restoration and Exhibition Wing

This is the first time in Japan that a restoration workshop for cultural properties in four different genres has been opened to the general public.

An on-demand shuttle bus service operates between Tenri Station and the Nara Prefecture Historical and Artistic Culture Complex.

On sale here are Michi-no-Eki (roadside station) tickets, cards, and stamp rally books.

“Sozaikichi” is full of the kinds of materials that children love.
Create your own artworks while you play!

Artistic Culture Wing

Does modern art seem hard to understand?
Well, go up to the third floor!
You may be able to meet some artists and see their artworks.

Promenade

Hotel Fairfield by Marriott

Culture Exchange Wing

This wing has a lineup of special products from the region and signed artworks by artists who are active in Nara Prefecture.

Information Wing

You, too, can be a musician by playing the street piano.

The restaurant is open until 8 p.m.
Why not relax on the terrace and watch the sun go down?
